LESSON ACTIVITIES
1. Prior to beginning the exercise, you will need to:
   - Print copies of the attached “One Moment in Time” templates on card stock for each student. (Use two different colors of card stock.)
   - Obtain masking tape/colored tape for use in creating a timeline.
   - Obtain colored pencils/markers and scissors to use to create cards for the timeline
   - Obtain computer access for research.
   - Divide students into four groups to address the four subjects: school integration, the civil rights movement, the Cold War, and the Vietnam War.
   - Print copies of the following articles. (Additional related articles may be found upon searching e-WV at http://www.wvencyclopedia.org/)
2. Open the class with a general discussion of the time period for each of these groups. Many of them overlap. Be prepared later in the class session to offer detailed information regarding each of these topics and their impact on the political, economic, and social arenas.

3. Make a timeline using the masking tape/colored tape. You will need one for each of your classes. Place the designated time cards (1950, 1955, 1960, 1965, and 1970) on the timeline, leaving appropriate amount of space between each time designation.

4. Announce the divided student groups—school integration, civil rights movement, Cold War, and Vietnam War.

5. Distribute appropriate copies of the designated articles to the group members.

6. Allow time for the students to read and discuss their articles. Remind the students to think in terms of the political, social, and economic impact for West Virginia for each of these topics.

7. Distribute one copy of the “One Moment in Time/West Virginia” card to the students.

8. Assignment: Have students draw a picture that would depict something learned from the assigned articles. This must reflect West Virginia. Students are to include the date/time period and the picture on the front of the card. On the back, the students are to write a short summary of the picture, relating it to West Virginia. Cut out the card.

9. Allow the students to place their card on the timeline. Encourage the students to pay attention to the time periods and place the card appropriately. Prior to the students placing their card on the timeline, have them briefly discuss their selected picture/information.

10. Lead a discussion relating these topics to the social, economic, and political impact of these 20th-century events on West Virginia. Encourage student participation. Students may also complete the template (helpful with note-taking) during this discussion.

11. Distribute the “One Moment in Time/United States” card, using the following instructions: “Now that we have discussed these events in relation to West Virginia, I would like for you to research additional events that relate to your assigned areas that affected the United States. You are to create a “One Moment in Time” card for that event as well.” (This is to allow the students to have a greater understanding of important U.S./West Virginia events.) Cut out the card.

12. Once the students have completed their research and card, have them place the card on the timeline in the appropriate place.
13. Ticket Out The Door: Students are to name one event and describe its social, economic, and political effects on West Virginia.
